About Sarcoidosis

Sarcoidosis is a serious inflammatory disease that can affect any organ or system in the body, regardless of a person's race, age, or sex. It causes the immune system to overreact, producing clusters of inflammatory cells that attach to tissues and organs, disrupting their normal function. While it is not contagious, it can develop suddenly and with little or no warning.

We cannot do this without you — your support truly matters. We look forward to seeing you on the course!

Canadian Sarcoidosis Organization

Sponsors and Donations form

"Give Sarcoidosis the Birdie!" Annual Memorial Golf Tournament"

Hello,

Sarcoidosis is a rare and complex disease that affects individuals and families across Alberta, creating profound challenges that require urgent attention. The Canadian Sarcoidosis Organization (CSO) has been at the forefront of raising awareness and advancing research for this condition, and we are deeply committed to making a lasting impact. We are honored to work alongside the University of Calgary, where researchers are tirelessly dedicated to unraveling the mysteries of sarcoidosis and improving outcomes for those affected.

This year, we are reaching out to ask for your support at our Annual Memorial Golf Tournament on Friday, August 21, 2026, at the Carstairs Community Golf Club. This event plays a crucial role in raising both funds and awareness for sarcoidosis research in partnership with the Cumming School of Medicine at the University of Calgary. The proceeds from the tournament directly support the Bronchoscopy Suite, a facility dedicated to advancing research and treatment for sarcoidosis.

It is only with the generosity of donors like you that we can continue this vital work. Your contribution will help fund critical research projects focused on finding better treatments and ultimately a cure for this devastating disease. There are numerous ways to get involved—whether through hole sponsorships, tournament sponsorship, hole prizes, team prizes, or silent auction items—every donation makes a significant difference. Plus, remember that your gift may be tax-deductible.

We are counting on your support and would be honored to have you join us in this important mission. Your generosity will be acknowledged in our golf tournament program and on our website for the entire year (with your permission).

Thank you for helping us make a real difference in the lives of those affected by sarcoidosis. Together, we can create a future where this disease is better understood and more effectively treated.

Sincerely,

Canadian Sarcoidosis Organization
